CLASS HISTORY

The class of 1951 began twelve years ago when a group of eager boys and girls entered Wendell School. These years have passed quickly, but we have never forgotten our teachers and the fun we had along with the hard work and studies.

We felt very important and grown when we reached the eighth grade because we had two teachers, Mrs. Putman and Mrs. Nespeco.

After we entered high school we finally realized that we could not possibly have so many lessons and such a wonderful time. We shall never forget our class parties, trips, the classmates who have come and gone, and the patient teachers who helped us in so many ways.

During our junior year under Mrs. Elwood Perry's supervision we gave a junior play "Good Glory" and entertained at the junior-senior banquet.

The last and most important year of our school life, the senior year, arrived at last after eleven long years of waiting. We had as our sponsor Mrs. E. T. Boyette.

The first exciting event was the day we received our beloved class rings and soon afterwards we sponsored the Halloween Carnival which was lots of fun and work.

In January we went to Williamsburg, Virginia, where we increased our knowledge and enjoyed ourselves immensely. We also published our annual that month.

During the spring we shall take a longer trip to Washington, D. C. and see the famous places that we have read about.

In May we shall receive our diplomas and then our school days will draw to an end. Our years have been busy and happy ones and we know they have been well-spent, for we have prepared ourselves for the future and a successful life.

Historian - Ann H. Hinstead

POEM

PARTING

Parents, teachers, friends, so dear,
The time of parting is fast drawing near,
When each must go his way in life
And face there the joys, the triumph, the strife.

At the thought of parting we utter a sigh,
Though we face the future with heads held high;
Each aware of the task ahead
Not being hindered by doubt or dread.

We've fought a long battle and upon nearing the goal,
Our happiness and delight is unmeasured, untold.
And the friends we've made at "Old W. H. S."
We shall always consider our very best.

We sincerely appreciate the help received,
For without it our goal could not have been achieved.
We shall give credit where credit is due.
Unanimously, dear faculty, we say--"Thank You!"

Out: Anne Habyard

MOTTO: Prove all things; hold fast to that which is good.

COLORS: Blue and white

FLOWER: Carnation

SONG

A PERFECT DAY

When you come to the end of your school days,
And you sit alone with your thoughts;
While the chimes ring out with a carol gay
For the joy of a job well done;
Do you think what the end of these perfect years
Can do to a tired heart,
When the end of these days are drawing near
And the dear friends have to part.

Well, this is the end of our school days,
Near the end of a journey, too;
But it leaves a thought that is big and strong
With a wish that is kind and true;
For memory has painted these perfect days
With colors that never fade,
And we find at the end of these perfect days
The soul of a friend we've made.

Song: Mack Creech

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior class of Wendell High School in the town of Wendell, North Carolina, on the 28th day of May, 1951, being in sound mind and good heart, and fully realizing that although as a class we shall exist no more, that there will never be another class of '51, do here by make and publish this our last will and testament; all wills other than this to be null and void.

To our Alma Mater, we leave our best wishes, our loyal affection and all our hopes for a better Wendell High in the future.

To Mr. Boyette, our principal, to Mrs. Boyette, our loyal advisor and sponsor, and to the faculty, for their untiring efforts in promoting our education, we can only hope that the future classes will be better than we have been.

L. C. Haswell leaves his seat in Business Arithmetic to Norman Dean, hoping Norman gets away with as much as he did.

Bob Grimes leaves his job at the theatre to Curtis Lovelace in hopes it'll break him from the pool room.

Bertie Barham leaves her loud and boistous ways to Sara Doans because Sara is too quiet.

Josephine Gay leaves her habit of going steady to Carole Wootton.

Betty Hinnant leaves her ability to keep the boys at arm's length to Pat Grimes who keeps them there anyway.

Ervin Privette leaves his list of excuses for leaving school to Bobby Yeargin so Bobby can stop writing his own.

To Mary Jon Gerald goes Kathy Sherron's well worn path to Wake Forest and her stylish appearance.

Billy Rhodes leaves his art of drawling words to Shirley Hinnant.

To Patsy Wells goes Mamie Richardson's strong right arm with a guarentee that it is still in good working condition.

John Tarpley wills his "interest" in the freshman class to the "gentle," "dignified," Jimmy Wiggs.

To Bobby Perry, Mack Creech bequeathes his beautiful eyes, that "come hither" look and that innocent expression--a dangerous but interesting combination.

Ivan Gay would like to bestow his handsome physique and features upon Louis Sanders but Ivan fears he will need everything for his future.

Letty Lou Pearce leaves her tender heart to Warren Allen, hoping he'll get sorry for those girls in the lower and upper classes.

J. O. Allen leaves his ability to tell jokes to Bobby Underhill. We hope you do a better job, Bobby.

Marjorie Flowers leaves her temper to Nona Dean.

Joanne Mitchell leaves her title of biggest flirt to Frances Johnson.

Ruth Rhodes is willing to tell her secret of how to be small and still be seen to Sibylene Blinson. It's all in the family anyway.

Another family girl, Rebecca Nowell, leaves her athletic ability to Merrilyn Baker.

Janis Strickland leaves her shyness to Bobbie Jean May.

Dorothy Edmonds leaves her love for school to Barbara Martin and Lucille Wall hoping they can bear to stay the whole six hours of their last year.

Grady Clark leaves his title of taxi driver for the senior girls to Dan Driver.

Coye Lee Blinson leaves his over abundance of friendliness to Gray Boyette.

Bruce Herndon leaves his habit of trying to chew gum in economics class to Dorothy Hood, hoping she'll get away with it more times than he did.

Betty Bruch leaves her love of swimming and Mercurys to Doris Jones.

Ann Kay Winstead leaves her good grades to Norma Clark.

Nevelle Lovelace leaves his bad habit of talking to Katrina Alford.

Sue Pleasants leaves her "Toni" hair style to Dwight Horton.

Doris Painter leaves her silly little giggle to Tommy Noblin.

Anne Hobgood leaves her love for coco-colas from Brantly's drugstore to Frances Ihrle.

Shelton Bridgers leaves Betsy Baugh to walk home from school by herself.

Sentator — Sue Pleasants

CLASS PROPHECY

Well, here I am, just back from an alumni meeting with my old classmates of '51. It was interesting and enjoyable visiting with each one and seeing what each had accomplished in the past ten years.

Ivan Gay, our senior class president, is now agriculture teacher at Knightdale High School.

Ervin Privette is now quite a successful business man in Rocky Mount. I understand that he owns several warehouses and is president of several civic organizations.

L. C. Haswell is running a Model's School in New York. Well, he did have plenty of experience with girls!

J. O. Allen was there wearing a "loud" plaid shirt. He's a millionaire playboy, having made his fortune publishing joke books. After all, he did have quite a collection.

Billy Rhodes is the present owner of Rhodes Furniture Company at Raleigh.

Mamie Ann Richardson is secretary for her husband, who is the owner of a large department store.

While chatting with Sue Pleasants, I learned that she is an operator and beauty stylist at James Beauty Salon in Los Angeles.

Katherine Sherron, better known as "Kathy" is a laboratory technician to her husband, a successful physician.

Well, Josephine Gay finally hooked J. C. Evans and is now keeping house in one of Fuquay's most modern homes.

Mrs. Coye Lee Blinson, none other than our own Ruth Rhodes, is now author of several best-selling books.

Joeann Mitchell has really made herself a name in Hollywood. She is a very capable dramatic actress.

Remember Bertie Barham? She is principal and an English teacher at Roanoke Rapids Junior and Senior School.

Marjorie Flowers surprised me. She is a celebrated art designer of clothes in Washington and Paris. She has painted several pictures also.

Bob Grimes is still as tall as ever, but it doesn't bother him. He owns a chain of theaters from Maine to Florida. His job as usher at Wendell Theater certainly helped him.

Dorothy Edmonds is typing instructor at Wendell High School now.

Betty Hinnant couldn't be at our reunion tonight, as she is a missionary to Nigeria.

Anne Hobgood is fashion designer and copywriter for Jean's in Raleigh. She can still chum around with Doris Painter who is physical education teacher at Hugh Morson in Raleigh.

Coye Lee Blinson and John Tarpley both went into the merchant business and are both married to Lizard Lick girls. Coye Lee is owner of Blinson's Chain Grocery Stores, while John owns and operates Tarpley's Grocery and Mill.

On the program for tonight was Mack Creech, my old classmate. Some critics acknowledge him as the second "Frank Sinatra."

Janis Strickland is a medical secretary to Dr. Hester in Wendell.

Shelton Bridgers was recently installed as president of the A.F.L. Well, he has had plenty of experience with coal, if not with the coal miners.

Nevelle Lovelace is football coach and professor at Duke University.

Grady Clark owns a fleet of taxi-cabs in Raleigh. I understand that he gives no girls free rides except one, making up for lost time, I suppose.

Bruce Herndon is director of Herndon's Dance School in Raleigh.

Betty Bruch writes the "Betty's Advice to the Lovelorn" in the Gold Leaf Farmer. Incidentally, she's changed her name to Mrs. Robert L. Williford.

Ann Kay Winstead is home economics teacher at Zebulon now, while Rebecca Nowell is society editor of the News and Observer in Raleigh.

And I, Lettie Lou Pearce, am personell director of Carolina Power and Light Company in Raleigh.

Prophet — Letty Lou Pearce
